The stairway to heavenly political satire originally laid by the Capitol Steps continues upward with Capitol Fools — the new musical parody group created by the performers and co-writer from the Capitol Steps. Capitol Fools hold up a mirror to our crazy political culture, providing hilarious song parodies and foolish reflections that continue to inspire belly-laughter.

Audiences will continue to see cast members from past seasons of the Capitol Steps performing all the beloved bits, the show-ending and mind-boggling backward talking spoonerisms, breakneck costume changes, over-the-top impressions, and all new song parodies reflecting the day's news.

He has long, light-colored hair and is wearing a dark jacket and jeans. The stage is lit with blue and white lights, and there is a large, dark, abstract shape in the background. Other band members are visible in the background, including a drummer and a bassist. The overall atmosphere is energetic and professional.

KENNY WAYNE SHEPHERD BAND

Friday
9/22/23
7:30 p.m.

There are few artists whose names are synonymous with one instrument and how it's played in service to an entire genre.

Utter the phrase "young blues rock guitarist" within earshot of anyone with even a cursory knowledge of the modern musical vanguard and the first name they are most likely to respond with will be Kenny Wayne Shepherd. The Louisiana born axeman and songsmith has sold millions of albums while throwing singles into the Top 10, shining a light on the rich blues of the past and forging ahead with his own modern twist on a classic sound he has embodied since his teens.

In a 20-year recording career that began when he was just 16, Shepherd has established himself as an immensely popular recording artist, a consistently in-demand live act and an influential force in a worldwide resurgence of interest in the blues.

From television performances on "The Tonight Show with Jay Leno", "The Late Show with David Letterman", "Jimmy Kimmel Live" and "Late Night with Jimmy Fallon" (amongst others) to features in "Rolling Stone", "Vanity Fair", "Maxim Magazine", "Blender", "Spin", "USA Today" and more, his musical career has been nothing short of phenomenal.

Born in New Orleans, Louisiana in 1961, Marsalis began his classical training on trumpet at age 12, entered The Juilliard School at age 17, and then joined Art Blakey and the Jazz Messengers. He made his recording debut as a leader in 1982, and has since recorded more than 60 jazz and classical recordings, which have won him nine GRAMMY Awards. In 1983 he became the first and only artist to win both classical and jazz GRAMMYS in the same year and repeated this feat in 1984.

TWENTY YEARS • ONE NIGHT

Ruben & Clay are thrilled to reunite twenty years after captivating audiences during their historic run on the second season of Fox's "American Idol" in 2003. For the last thirty-two years, THE PEKING ACROBATS® have redefined audience perceptions of Chinese acrobatics. They perform daring maneuvers atop a precarious pagoda of chairs and display their technical prowess at such arts as trick-cycling, precision tumbling, juggling, somersaulting, and gymnastics. They push the limits of human ability, defying gravity with amazing displays of contortion, flexibility, and control. THE PEKING ACROBATS are often accompanied by live musicians who skillfully play traditional Chinese instruments; the time-honored Chinese music coalesces with high-tech special effects and awe-inspiring acrobatic feats, creating an exuberant entertainment event with the festive pageantry of a Chinese Carnival.

UKULELE ORCHESTRA

OF GREAT BRITAIN

The Ukulele Orchestra of Great Britain is a group of all-singing, all-strumming Ukulele players. A concert by the Ukulele Orchestra is a funny, virtuosic, twanging, awesome, foot-stomping obituary of rock-n-roll and melodious light entertainment featuring only the "bonsai guitar" and a menagerie of voices in a collision of post-punk performance and toe-tapping oldies. There are no drums, pianos, backing tracks or banjos, no pitch shifters or electronic trickery. Only an astonishing revelation of the rich palette of orchestration afforded by ukuleles and singing (and a bit of whistling). Audiences have a good time with the Ukulele Orchestra. Going from Tchaikovsky to Nirvana via Otis Redding and Spaghetti Western soundtracks, the Orchestra takes us on "a world tour with only hand luggage" and gives the listener "One Plucking Thing After Another".

Thursday
4/11/24
7:30 p.m.

Using instruments small and large, in high and low registers, whether playing intricate melodies, simple tunes, or complex chords, and sitting in chamber group format dressed in formal evening wear, the Orchestra uses the limitations of the instrument to create a musical freedom as it reveals unsuspected musical insights. Both the beauty and vacuity of popular and highbrow music are highlighted, the pompous and the trivial, the moving and the amusing. Sometimes a foolish song can touch an audience more than high art; sometimes music which takes itself too seriously is revealed to be hilarious. You may never think about music in the same way once you've been exposed to the Ukes' depraved musicology!

Timeless in a way that few other acts today are, The Spinners are one of the most iconic and enduring groups in R&B history. With a towering legacy spanning over six decades, The Spinners have never lost their universal appeal. The band both created and came to define the singularly smooth sound of Philadelphia Soul, channeling the highs and lows of romance and heartbreak into a catalogue of classic hits, beloved across generations. Throughout the years the Spinners have topped both the Pop and R&B charts with smash singles like, "I'll Be Around," "Could It Be I'm Falling In Love," "Then Came You," "The Rubberband Man" and many more—earning six Grammy nominations, a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame, induction in Rock and Roll Hall of Fame Nomination, over 100 million YouTube views, and selling millions of records worldwide in the process. Their legendary repertoire has earned a permanent place in the American songbook.

BRINGING CAMPUS AND COMMUNITY TOGETHER

McCain
AUDITORIUM

DID YOU KNOW?

McCain Auditorium isn't just a facility with a stage at Kansas State University; it is a hub of artistic and cultural opportunity for the campus and the surrounding region. McCain is committed to enhancing cultural expression, developing human potential and expanding knowledge through its engagement programs.

McCain works with campus and community partners to promote universitywide creativity and research through the arts, humanities and sciences, advancing the university's goal of becoming a Top 50 public research institution by 2025.

In addition to the McCain Performance Series, a nine-month season of world-class performances, McCain Auditorium offers numerous engagement and outreach programs.

MCCAIN CONVERSATIONS AND POST-PERFORMANCE DIALOGUES

These discussions are designed to engage individuals with artists as a question-answer session or with a scholar in a related field to encourage deeper discussions and understandings about the performance or topics relevant to the work. For a list of McCain Conversations, please visit k-state.edu/mccain/engage/conversations.

Due to staffing issues, McCain conversations will be on hiatus in the 2023-2024 season.

COMMUNITY CONNECTIONS

Several artists in the McCain Performance Series offer master classes, lectures, creative residencies and other activities for schools, businesses, senior centers and other entities to connect artists to the community.

FREE STUDENT MATINEES

More than 6,000 precollege students from the local and surrounding schools are bused to McCain Auditorium each year to see a live arts educational performance. Teachers receive in-depth study guides to connect curriculum to these free student matinees.

THANK YOU TO OUR MCCAIN EDUCATION AND OUTREACH SPONSORS

CAMPUS CONNECTIONS

Select artists presented by the McCain Performance Series will visit campus classrooms and other locations to connect with students in informal settings. This program encourages dialogue and extends opportunities to deepen learning unique to their fields or discover issues beyond classroom curriculum.

FREE STUDENT MATINEES

January 29, 2024, at 9:30 a.m. and 12 p.m.
Recommended for Grades 3 and up

Bringing collected oral history to life, this new Mad River Theater Works one-act play with music explores the historic 1963 March on Washington. Revered as the day that Martin Luther King Jr. made his famous “I Have A Dream” speech in August of 1963, the event drew more than a quarter of a million people together in a peaceful gathering. It was a shining moment in the progression of equality in America and a pivotal action in the Civil Rights Movement of the 1960s.

JANET’S PLANET: A TOUR THROUGH THE SOLAR SYSTEM

March 19, 2024, at 9:30 a.m. and 12 p.m.

Recommended for Grades K-5

Janet’s Planet: A Tour Through the Solar System travels at the “speed of thought,” introducing the wonders of the galaxy to families and young audiences throughout the country. The 45-minute interactive presentation engages and challenges students and is designed to inspire STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics) potential in elementary school-age kids. Lesson plans are designed to integrate with Next Generation Science Standards, based on a curriculum endorsed by NASA and Space Florida.

To receive your discount, all of your selected shows must be purchased at the same time. Ticket buyers wishing to sit together must send separate orders in one envelope. All audience members, including lap children, must have a ticket. Please, no children under 5 years of age unless noted.

 - Level of Friends of McCain contribution.
 - How many events are chosen in current subscription order (must pick at least seven different events).
 - Date order received.
4. Double-check your order! Errors on your order form can delay the process, as it requires you to be contacted for clarification.

WHAT HAPPENS AFTER I TURN IN THIS FORM:

Tickets will be mailed or placed in will call in mid to late August (depending on which option is selected). Payment will be verified before tickets are mailed or placed in will call.
